

Application for the NSW Medical Energy Rebate

The NSW Medical Energy Rebate is for customers who are unable to self-regulate their body temperature. It may be associated with certain medical conditions such as Parkinson's disease and multiple sclerosis. To be eligible for the NSW Medical Energy Rebate,

- either you as the electricity account holder or someone residing at your residence must have an inability to self-regulate body temperature. This requires the completion of this signed form by a medical practitioner who has been treating the patient for more than three months; and
- you as the account holder must have one of the eligible cards listed below*.

Please return the completed application form to your electricity supplier:

Note for long term caravan park residents: You should complete this form as if you were a direct electricity account holder and submit it to the standard electricity supplier for your district, along with a statement from your caravan park owner to certify that you are a long term resident at the specified address of the caravan park. ELECTRICITY ACCOUNT HOLDER'S AUTHORISATION AND DECLARATION

- All particulars on this form are, to the best of my knowledge and belief, true and accurate.
- The electricity supply address for my electricity account is the primary place of residence for the patient who has an inability to self-regulate body temperature (if the person is different from the Account Holder).
- I currently hold one of the eligible cards listed above.
- I give consent to the information on this form to be verified with Centrelink or Department of Veterans' Affairs to assess my eligibility for the Rebate, and will not be used for any other purpose without my consent.
- I will notify my electricity supplier in writing if the patient ceases to reside with me or if my circumstances change including the validity of this application or my entitlements to the Medical Energy Rebate.
- I note that if I change my electricity supplier I will need to provide a new application form to my new electricity supplier if I wish to continue to receive the Rebate.
